

General Guidelines for All Projects Hamlin Plantation Architectural Review Board (ARB)

The Hamlin Plantation ARB reviews exterior home projects for adherence to the esthetics of the neighborhood and governing covenants.

Owners are responsible for adhering to the Town of Mt. Pleasant Ordinances

Submission Due Date

The ARB Meets on the first Thursday of each month.

Submissions for consideration are due by 5pm the Monday of the week prior to the meeting.

For example, the first Thursday of February 2022 is February 3rd. Submissions for the February meeting would be due January 24th, 2022 by 5pm.

Please note there no ARB Meetings in August or December

Format of Application

Applications are to be submitted to the office in printed format in one complete package, all supporting documentation included.

Please note that the office will not print out submissions for residents and they should not be submitted via email.

Submissions missing any of the required documents from the checklist will be returned for completion.

Incomplete information or applications submitted after the deadline may be delayed until the following month.

Please note that hypothetical and/or "what if" scenarios of work being considered by owners will not be entertained by the ARB.

Refundable Deposits

Refunds will be issued upon submission of the Project Completion Form and satisfactory final inspection.

Notes

Please note - Hamlin is a beautiful but densely built neighborhood, please consider the perspectives of your neighbors when planning your project. Homeowners are responsible for completing their projects in a timely fashion while giving consideration to neighbors for noise and safety issues.
